

So Blue

Verse 1.

So blue, no sleep tonight
No touch of your hair, no kiss from you
Don't know, just what I would do
To gaze into your eyes, so blue

Bridge

I know there's a lock of your golden hair
At the end, of every rainbow
The goodness of you, is everywhere
What should have lasted forever, has gone

Verse 2.

So blue, no love today
No one to share, a precious moment or two
I just lay, with tears in my eyes
And gaze, into, the skies, so blue

Solo

Verse 3.

So blue, no sleep tonight
No touch of your hair, no kiss from you
Don't know, just what I would do
To gaze into your eyes, so blue
So blue, so blue, so blue
