

The Lady Wants To Dance

Verse 1.

The lady wants to dance, alone on the floor
The lady aint got time, for love anymore
She doesn't want the ties yeah, of any romance
With sadness in her eyes, the lady wants to dance

Verse 2.

The lady wants to dance, every chance that she can
She never lifts her eyes yeah, to glance at a man
In case she gets what seems, an encouraging glance
She wants to be alone, but the lady wants to dance

Chorus

She aint got time for love, she aint got time for love
She aint got time for love, anymore
She aint got time for love, she aint got time for love
She aint got time for love, anymore

Solo

Verse 3.

The lady wants to dance, maybe just to forget
Her movements just enhance, her refined silhouette
All eyes upon her stare, as if in a trance
The lady is not there, the lady wants to dance

Bridge

Dance lady, tastefully, taking no chance
Dance lady, gracefully, dance lady dance

Chorus

She aint got time for love, she aint got time for love
She aint got time for love, anymore
She aint got time for love, she aint got time for love
She aint got time for love, anymore
