

You're Gonna Love Me Someday

Verse 1

You're gonna love me some day, your gonna love me some day
I'm old, and you're so young, please don't worry I'm real well hung
You're gonna love me someday

Verse 2

You're gonna give me your heart, you're gonna give me your heart
I've been pumping iron for weeks, now you can bounce a quarter off of my butt cheeks
You're gonna love me someday

Chorus

We can raise a kid or two, if diaper changing's right for you
Breakfast in bed is what I'll do, then maybe you can change my diaper too
You're gonna love me someday
You're gonna say I'm the man, you're gonna say I'm the man
Making love all night will be such fun, but if I go limp call nine one one
You're gonna love me someday

Chorus 2

Little things you do look good to me, you clean your teeth so perfectly
There's one more thing that you can do
Would you take my teeth out and clean em too
You're gonna love me some day. Repeat 3x
