

I Got Fired Today

Verse 1

I got fired today, yes I got fired
I thought my job was safe till the day I retired
There I was with the usual crew
Doing things that I usually do
All of a sudden out of the blue
I was told the boss wants to see you now
He wants to see you right now

Verse 2

I got fired today, yes I got fired
I went to say goodbye and they'd already hired
A pretty girl with long blond hair
I thought they'd miss me but they didn't care
She'd already got her butt in my chair
Surrounded by admiring men
I quietly walked away

Bridge

I went to a bar, I needed a drink
I needed some time, so I could think
What was I going to tell my wife?
What happened today is gonna change our life

Solo

As I sat there wondering what to do
A voice said hey! I've been looking for you
Just down the street they're hiring today
They want to interview you right away

Verse 3

I got hired today, yes I got hired
I'm getting twice the pay, and I'm really inspired
The boss said welcome we're glad you're here
Unlike my old boss, he was sincere
He said the girl that took your old job used to work here
She really didn't have a clue, that's why we hired you
That's why she got fired
