

Her Butt's Too Big

Verse 1

I've got a girl, she's real tall
I don't know why she likes me, C'os I'm real small
She's got beautiful eyes, golden hair
She sure looks good in her underwear
She says there's still one thing she don't dig
Her butt's too big

Chorus

She says her butt's too big (her butt's too big)
Her butt's too big (her butt's too big)
Every time I call her
She says "I wish my butt was smaller"
Your best friend wears a wig
You're complaining C'os your butt's too big

Verse 2

I've got a girl, she's so fine
She aint got no money, so she uses mine
She wears the latest clothes, she wears diamond rings
If I weren't broke, I'd be wearing those things
She says there's still one thing she don't dig
Her butt's too big

Chorus

She says her butt's too big (her butt's too big)
Her butt's too big (her butt's too big)
Every time I call her
She says "I wish my butt was smaller"
Your best friend wears a wig
You're complaining C'os your butt's too big

Solo

Bridge (before last chorus)

I said, "Now listen to me honey I must explain
And give to you straight girl, "I think your vain"
She said, if you saw me naked there would be no squabble"
I'd jump up and down, you'd see the darn thing wobble
Oh, my butt's too big (her butt's too big)

She says her butt's too big (her butt's too big)
