

People Don't Bite Dogs, So Why Do Dogs Bite People?

Intro

People don't bite dogs, so why do dogs bite people?
I'm trying hard to understand dog psychology
People don't bite dogs, so why do dogs bite people?
I don't want to bite your dog, so why does he, want to bite me?

Verse 1

There was a lady with a pit bull on the trail
As she got closer the dog began to wail
It snarled and lurched at me, I thought it was the end
She said "he really likes you, and he wants to be your friend"

Chorus 1

People don't bite dogs, so why do dogs bite people?
I'm trying hard to understand dog psychology
People don't bite dogs, so why do dogs bite people?
I don't want to bite your dog, so why does he want to bite me?

Verse 2

When you are out walking with your dog
Have feelings for the folks who like to jog
People who are jogging seem to have such dog appeal
To a hairy mutt a wobbling butt must look like a juicy meal

Chorus 2

People don't smell dogs, so why do dogs smell people?
They seem to always stick their nose in a place it shouldn't be
People don't smell dogs, so why do dogs smell people?
I don't want to smell your dog, so why does he want to smell me?

Solo

Chorus 3

People don't lick dogs, so why do dogs lick people?
I'm trying hard to understand dog psychology
People don't lick dogs, so why do dogs lick people?
I don't want to lick your dog, so why does he want to lick me?

Verse 3

I was watching the dog round at the girlfriend's place

He licked his butt then she let him lick her face
His tongue went in her mouth, it was a gruesome sight
I just couldn't kiss her no more, so we broke up that night

Chorus 4

People don't bite dogs, so why do dogs bite people?
I'm trying hard to understand dog psychology
People don't bite dogs, so why do dogs bite people?
I don't want to bite your dog, so why does he want to bite me?
